18th December 2024

Dear Parents,

As our topic draws to an end, I'd like to acknowledge our learning tomorrow (if the wind is gentle enough) with a little version of the demise of Pudding Lane through its disastrous fire.

I will follow this up by a sparkler session for each child – weather permitting, of course. For this session, I ask you to provide your child with a pair of gloves for their enhanced safety.

To summarise – a pair of gloves for 19th December (tomorrow), please.

If you are unhappy with your child taking part it is vital that you let Miss Moulis know before 9am tomorrow. Thank you.

If the weather is not on my side, I'll postpone this until the first week back.

Kind regards and have a wonderful Christmas holiday,

C.Moulis
