Good Manners Challenge

In school this week, we have launched a challenge to the children to encourage them to use good manners and to be polite. The challenge started with an assembly led by Miss Willows, where the children thought about different ways of demonstrating good manners. The children thought of many different ways that they can show good manners, from saying good morning or good afternoon to holding doors open for others. Good manners are something that costs nothing and that make the world a better place—we can all use good manners and it is important children get into good habits as young as possible. We recognise the great work that you all already do, but would appreciate your support in this initiative, by encouraging your child to use good manners when they are at home or out and about with you.

All adults in school are aware of this initiative and have been asked to recognise and reward examples of good manners that they witness in school by awarding shells to children over the next two weeks. Who will earn lots of shells and be a shining example of good manners?!

Comic Relief—Bring and Buy Sale

Today, we were delighted to see the children looking bright and colourful to raise money for Comic Relief. Many thanks to all of you who remembered to send your children in non-uniform and sent in a donation of £1 for the charity.

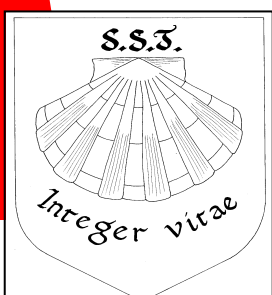

After assembly the School Council got busy sorting all of the donations that you had generously sent in to school for the Bring and Buy sale. They set them out on tables in the hall, deciding whether to sell them for £1 or 50p. They organised them into books, teddies and other toys tables and then manned the stalls at break time, helping the younger children to understand their money and giving change. The sale was very popular and the children did a great job of selling many of the items very quickly. Remaining items were on sale again at lunchtime, at the round table. The children were very pleased with the items that they were able to buy as you can see from the photographs.

A huge thank you goes to the School Council for organising this and running it and to all of you at home for sorting through your child's toys and sending in donations. We will let you know how much was raised for the charity once counting has been completed and the totals finalised.

The Deep Visit—Change of Date

As you are already aware, we will be going on a whole school visit in the Summer term to The Deep in Hull. Unfortunately, we have had to change the date for the visit as they were already fully booked for the date which we gave out on the dates at the end of the last academic year. The new date for this whole school visit is Monday 9th June. The visit will be free for all children, with local charities paying for this great experience to enhance the children's learning in Science.
